

Murder Mystery Party

You will be asked to introduce your character.
Speak aloud the words below when asked.

Introduction

Good afternoon to you all. My name is Mister Basil Bossy. I have worked for the Royal Mail all my life. I started as a humble postman, and worked my way up. I am now the Postmaster General, and I am in charge of delivering the Royal Mail hereabouts.

I've even got a long service medal, which I polish every night before going to bed.

The Royal Mail is vital. It must all always get through, though it may rain or shine. The Royal Mail must be delivered, be there frost, or snow, or ice, or even sunshine.

Your servant and assistant is:

Alice Hairband

Mr. Basil Bossy

When asked, you will have to track down the characters named below.

When you find the character, ask him or her the question given.
Remember the answer!

The answers are essential if we are to solve the mystery.

Questions for Other People

Character 1: Rt. Hon. Alexander Snootipants

Question 1: Did you find anything lost in the grounds?

Character 2: Ivory Tinkle

Question 2: Where did you learn to play the piano?

Character 3: Bruce Danunder

Question 3: Do you know what happened to the Baroness's son?

Some characters will ask you the question given.

When they do, give the answer below. Please be truthful!

If someone asks you any other question, just answer: "I'm sorry. I can't answer that."

Your Answer

Question: Have you ever tampered with the Royal Mail, or stolen a parcel?

Answer: No, most certainly not!

Ben Roberts

When asked, you will have to read aloud the scripts below.

Wait to be prompted for each piece.

Remember to stay in character!

Script

Miss Classy Galore approached me to intercept the Royal Mail, and swap the real clock for the fake one.

But I couldn't do it - not after working for the Post Office for all these years. So, the clock that Mister Timepiece sent is the one that the Baroness received.